

Listening to Air1 in the mornings has been uplifting. I'm able to stay focused in the midst of this chaotic and evil world by listening to the songs, commentaries and God's word. Replacing this station could have a disastrous effect on the public who depends on the aide of the DJ's and pastors who are easily available for prayers and support. Please don't take away a station that gives us hope.